THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

November 19, 2001

Mr. Oh Young Lee
President
The Federation of Korean
Associations, USA
Suite 300
1135 West Cheltenham Avenue
Melrose Park, Pennsylvania 19027-3008

Dear Mr. Lee:

Thank you for writing about the acts of war committed against the United States on September 11. In the face of this evil, our country remains strong and united, a beacon of freedom and opportunity to the rest of the world.

Our government continues to serve the American people. Our intelligence, military, and law enforcement communities are working non-stop to find those responsible for these attacks. We will make no distinction between the terrorists who committed these acts and those who help or harbor them.

We must remember that our Arab and Muslim American citizens love our Nation and must be treated with dignity and respect. Americans of every creed, ethnicity, and national origin must unite against our common enemies.

Since these terrible tragedies occurred, our citizens have been generous, kind, resourceful, and brave. I encourage all Americans to find a way to help. Web sites like LibertyUnites.org can serve as a resource for those wanting to participate in the relief efforts.

I deeply appreciate the support and prayers of so many Americans. May God bless you and may God bless America.

Sincerely,

George W. Bush

STATE OF NEW YORK
EXECUTIVE CHAMBER
ALBANY 12224
September 28, 2001

GEORGE E. PATAKI
GOVERNOR

Dear Mr. Lee:

September 11th will always be remembered as a day when a dark cloud descended across America. The unspeakable terror that struck New York City – and America – will stand as one of the darkest moments in human history.

In the wake of the terrible destruction and loss of life at the World Trade Center, the spirit of New York shined through with the extraordinarily courageous and selfless efforts of the firefighters, police officers and other rescue workers who put themselves at great risk to save others. From this worst of moments, we saw the best of New York. Many of them gave their lives that day, but their memory and their example have been an inspiration not just to all of us in New York, but to people around the world. Those still on the scene continue to work under the most difficult of circumstances without wavering. They will always have our heartfelt gratitude and appreciation for the difficult and dangerous jobs they do with such dedication and bravery.

And the many thousands of people throughout our State, our Nation and the world who have offered their assistance and shown their concern, compassion and support in the days since this tragedy have our heartfelt thanks as well. The outpouring of support from one end of the globe to the other has been simply overwhelming, and the people of New York have been deeply touched by your generosity and kindness. We will never forget it.

The forces of evil that committed this atrocity have caused pain that will last for generations, pain that has claimed the lives of innocent men, women and children. But evil never prevails. Freedom, despite its vulnerabilities, will always prevail. Our spirit is strong and our resolve is unshakable. Make no mistake about it – we will not just survive this disaster. Nor will we simply overcome it. We, the people of New York, will join together, united in strength, and lift New York to its greatest day.

On behalf of all New Yorkers, thank you for your support, prayers and encouragement. May God bless you, may God bless the people of New York, and may God bless America.

Very truly yours,

Mr. Oh Young Lee
President
